- closing and re-opening of Trading window and maintaining a record of the same from time to time.

5. Preservation of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”:

- a. All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of such person's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

- b. Unpublished Price Sensitive Information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
 - i. Entail an obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations where the Board is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - ii. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the Board is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- c. Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered an "Insider" for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with the Regulations.
- d. The Board shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose set out at paragraph 5(b) above, and shall not otherwise Trade in Securities of the Company when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- e. The Board of Directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of UPSI and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law, where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks, such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.
- f. The board of directors shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the SEBI regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.
- g. Need to Know:
 - (i) "need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duties or legal obligations, further their legitimate purpose and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.

- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any Employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

h. Limited access to confidential information:

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

6. Prohibition on dealing or communicating matters relating to insider trading:

No Insider when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall:

- Either on his behalf or on behalf of any other person trade in Securities of the Company;
- Communicate, or provide or allow access to, directly or indirectly, any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to/from any person.

7. Chinese Wall – Norms & Processes:

The Company shall adopt the following Chinese Walls procedures, and processes for permitting any designated person to “cross the wall”:

- a. Physical separation of departments to insulate them from each other;
- b. An educational programme, normally recurring, to emphasize the importance of not improperly or inadvertently divulging confidential information;
- c. Strict and carefully defined procedures for dealing with situations where it is thought that the wall should be crossed, and maintaining of proper records where that occurs;
- d. Monitoring by the Compliance Officer of the effectiveness of the Chinese Wall;
- e. Disciplinary sanctions where there has been a breach of the wall; and
- f. If an Employee/outsider receives Unpublished Price Sensitive Information from the inside area of the Company, it is treated that the said Employee or outsider has crossed the wall. Pursuant to crossing the wall, the Employee becomes an Insider. Such Employee/outsider must be subject to all restrictions and prohibitions as required under this Code, the Regulations and policies relating to Chinese Walls. An Employee shall no longer be considered to be an Insider when the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is published and are no longer significant to the market.

8. Trading Plan:

- a. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for trading in securities of the Company, in accordance with paragraph 8(b) below (“Trading Plan”) and present it to the Compliance Officer (mail id: Complianceofficer.expleosol@expleosolutions.com), for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which Trades may be carried out on his / her behalf in accordance with such Trading Plan. By doing so, the possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information received subsequent to framing the said Trading Plan would not prohibit the execution of such Trades that he/ she had pre-decided even before the possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

- b. The Trading Plan shall:
- i. not entail commencement of Trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - ii. not entail overlap of any period for which another Trading Plan is already in existence;
 - iii. set out following parameters for each trade to be executed and
 - either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - nature of the trade;
 - either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days with an outer limit of 120 days / months following the presentation of the Trading Plan to the Compliance Officer;
 - price limit*, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a) for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price
 - b) for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price
 - iv. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

*(This is an optional parameter and is required to be rounded to the nearest numeral if included in the trading plan.)

- c. The Compliance Officer shall consider and review the Trading Plan made as above to assess whether the Trading Plan would have any potential violation of the Regulations and shall approve it accordingly after getting in-principle approval from the Managing Director of the Company. He / She shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the Trading Plan, as per provisions of the Regulations.
- d. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the Trading Plan, without being entitled to either execute any Trade in the Securities outside the scope of the Trading Plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

- e. The implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the Trading Plan, the Insider was in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and the said information has not become Generally Available Information at the time of the commencement of implementation.

The trade not to be executed, if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (iv) of clause (v) of sub-regulation 2, and price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider. The insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit.

- f. The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.

9. Restrictions and procedures for Directors, Officers and designated persons while dealing in company securities:

- a) All Directors, officers and Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the Securities of the Company only within a valid trading window, within the threshold limit prescribed hereunder and not during the Prohibited Period (as defined below), except as provided in a Trading Plan formulated in accordance with paragraph 8(b) above.

➤ Valid trading window shall mean a period other than the Prohibited Period.

➤ Prohibited period means:

- Period beginning from the end of every quarter till 48 hours from the time the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is made public is considered and approved by the Board and informed to the Stock Exchanges.
 - Such other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time in consultation with any MD & CEO of the Company.
- The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of the valid trading window to all the Designated Persons of the Company when he / she determines that a Designated Person or a class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such Securities to which such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information relates.
- Additionally, the trading window shall be closed in particular for a designated person or class of Designated Persons when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI, for such periods as determined by Compliance Officer in consultation with the Managing Director and CEO of the Company.

- The valid trading window shall remain closed during the time the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information remains un-published, as determined by the Compliance Officer. The valid trading window shall be opened after a minimum of 48 hours after the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is made public.
- All Designated Persons (including their Immediate Relatives) shall conduct all their dealings in the Securities only when the valid trading window is open and no Designated Person shall deal in the Securities during the period when the valid trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time.
- Despite the valid trading window being open, Designated Persons (and their Immediate Relatives) would only be allowed to Trade, in excess of the threshold limits (10,000 Shares), subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer and provided that they are not in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information at the time they carry out the transaction.
- The trading window restrictions mentioned herein shall not apply in respect of –
 - (a) Transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4 of the Regulation and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bona fide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the SEBI.
 - (b) Transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time.
- In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the valid trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when the valid trading window is closed.
- Trading Window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.
- The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

b) Pre-Clearance of trading in securities of the Company:

- All Directors, Officers and Designated Persons who intend to trade in Securities of the Company exceeding 10,000 Securities in aggregate per calendar month, regardless of whether the valid trading window is open or closed, shall pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-clearance procedure as described at paragraph 9(c) below.

c) Procedure for Pre-Clearance of Trade:

- An application in writing or by way of an email communication at insider.expleosol@expleosolutions.com, for pre-clearance of Trade in Form –2, shall be made to the Managing Director and CEO and to the Compliance Officer. The application shall also be accompanied by an undertaking as per the prescribed format in “Form2A” with the following details:
 - That the concerned person does not have any access or has not received any “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” up to the signing of the undertaking.
 - That in case the concerned person has access to or receives “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of undertaking but before the execution of transaction, the concerned person should immediately inform the Compliance Officer and would completely refrain from dealing in the Securities of the Company till the information become public.
 - That the concerned person has not contravened the policy of the Company for prevention of Insider Trading (including this Code), as notified from time to time.
 - The concerned person has made a full disclosure in the matter, has not omitted to state any relevant information and the information provided is true and correct in all respects.
- The application for pre-clearance shall be approved by the Compliance Officer, in consultation with the MD and CEO within [two working days], provided the Compliance Officer is of the opinion that the grant of such approval would not result in a breach of the provisions of the Code, or the Regulations or the SEBI Act or any other law in force at that time. Any rejection of permission shall be communicated to the concerned applicant forthwith with a copy to the Compliance Officer.
- All transactions involving the Compliance Officer or the MD and CEO shall be approved by 2 Directors, designated by the Board for the purpose.
- The concerned person, if decides not to Trade after securing the pre-clearance, the same shall be reported to the Company forthwith in writing with justification thereof.
- The Compliance Officer shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- The Compliance Officer shall be entitled to require the concerned person to provide any additional documents such as declarations, indemnity bonds and other documents/papers, in addition to the undertaking in Form 2-A, confirming that the concerned person is not in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, at the time of granting the pre-clearance for the Trade.

- In case of doubt, the Directors, Officers or Designated Persons shall be responsible to check with the Compliance Officer or one of the contact persons designated by the Compliance Officer, if any, from time to time, whether the provisions of this paragraph 9 are applicable to any particular proposed transaction in the Securities.
- pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

d) Validity of pre-clearance period:

Directors, officers and Designated Persons shall execute the Trades pre-cleared by the Compliance Officer in respect of Securities of the Company within 7 trading days after the date of approval of pre-clearance letter. If the Trade is not executed within the said period, the concerned person must get pre-clearance for the Trade again, in compliance with paragraph 8(c) above.

e) Holding period of Securities:

All Directors, Officers and Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of Securities of the Company shall not enter into a contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of Securities within six months following a prior Trade.

- Exercise of ESOPs and sale of shares acquired through such exercise of ESOPs is exempted from the requirements of contra trade restrictions.
- In case the sale of Securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period of 6 months may be waived by the Compliance officer in consultation with the Managing Director after recording in writing his/her reasons in this regard, provided that such relaxation does not violate the Regulations.
- In case a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of the Code and the Regulations, the profits from such Trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the SEBI Act.
- restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

f) Prohibition on derivative transaction:

All Directors, Officers and Designated Persons shall not undertake any derivative transaction in the Securities of the Company at any time.
